

CONSTITUTION OF CHRIST IMPACT MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL (CIMI)

(Doing the Works of God – John 14:12)

PREAMBLE

We, the members of Christ Impact Ministries International, believing in the Lordship of Jesus Christ, the authority of the Holy Scriptures, and the mandate to do the works of God in this generation, do establish this Constitution to govern the affairs of the Ministry and its local churches, for the glory of God and the advancement of His Kingdom.

ARTICLE 1: NAME

The name of the organization shall be CHRIST IMPACT MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL, hereinafter referred to as “CIMI” or “the Ministry.” It may also operate local congregations under the name “Christ Impact Church International” or other approved designations.

ARTICLE 2: MOTTO, VISION, MISSION, AND VALUES

2.1 Motto

“Doing the works of God” (John 14:12; 1 Thessalonians 1:5; Acts 28:31; 2 Corinthians 1:19; 2 Corinthians 4:5).

2.2 Vision

To do the great works of the Lord, preaching Christ Jesus to the nations, demonstrating the glory of God’s Kingdom in much power and the Holy Spirit (John 14:12; 1 Thessalonians 1:5).

Expanded Vision: To manifest the fullness of God’s Kingdom on earth through supernatural demonstration, cultural transformation, generational succession, global reach, Word & Spirit integration, and reconciliation ministry.

2.3 Mission

Reaching the world with the light and blessings of the gospel of Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 4:4; 2 Timothy 1:10; Romans 15:29).

2.4 Mission Statement

As ambassadors of Christ, sent to the world to preach the message of the Lamb, bringing all people to God through the word of reconciliation, restoring all to the glory of God, and raising Christ-centered and God-loving generations (2 Corinthians 5:9-29).

2.5 Core Values

Love, Faith, Hope, Holiness, Righteousness, Justice, Peace, Prosperity.

1. Love – “God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them.” (1 John 4:16). We love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, and our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:30-31).
2. Faith – “Without faith it is impossible to please God.” (Hebrews 11:6). We live by faith in Christ, trusting His promises, and doing the works of God as Jesus did (John 14:12; Romans 1:17).
3. Hope – “Hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts.” (Romans 5:5). We eagerly await the return of Christ and the resurrection, anchoring our souls in His unchanging Word (Titus 2:13; Hebrews 6:19).
4. Holiness – “Be holy, because I am holy.” (1 Peter 1:16). We pursue purity in heart, speech, and conduct, separating from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God (2 Corinthians 7:1; 1 Thessalonians 4:7).
5. Righteousness – “Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness.” (Matthew 6:33). We stand in the imputed righteousness of Christ and practice righteous deeds, for “whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as He is righteous” (1 John 3:7; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
6. Justice – “Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed.” (Isaiah 1:17). We act as God’s agents to rescue the weak, uphold the cause of the poor, and confront systemic evil, for “the Lord loves justice” (Psalm 33:5; Micah 6:8).
7. Peace – “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.” (Matthew 5:9). We live in peace with all people as far as it depends on us, proclaim the gospel of peace, and carry the peace of Christ that surpasses all understanding (Romans 12:18; Colossians 3:15; John 14:27).
8. Prosperity – “Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.” (3 John 2). We believe God delights in the holistic well-being of His people—spiritual, physical, financial, and relational—so that we may be generous in every good work (Deuteronomy 8:18; 2 Corinthians 9:8; 1 Timothy 6:17-19).

These values are not exhaustive but serve as the biblical foundation for all ministry life and activity.

ARTICLE 3: DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

CIMI holds the following essential doctrines:

1. The Bible – The inspired, infallible, and authoritative Word of God (2 Timothy 3:16; 2 Peter 1:20-21).
2. The Trinity – One God eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19).
3. Jesus Christ – Fully God and fully man, conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, lived sinlessly, died on the cross for our sins, rose bodily from the dead, ascended to the Father, and will return in power and glory (John 1:1,14; 1 Corinthians 15:3-4; Acts 1:11).
4. Salvation – By grace through faith in Christ alone, apart from works; regeneration by the Holy Spirit is essential for salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5).
5. The Holy Spirit – His present-day ministry includes conviction, regeneration, indwelling, baptism, sealing, and empowering for service; the gifts of the Spirit are operational today (Acts 1:8; 1 Corinthians 12; Romans 12).
6. Water Baptism & The Lord's Supper – Obedience to Christ's commands; baptism by immersion; communion as a memorial of His death (Matthew 28:19; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26).
7. Healing & Deliverance – Divine healing and deliverance from demonic oppression are provided through Christ's atonement and are part of the gospel ministry (Isaiah 53:4-5; Mark 16:17-18; James 5:14-16).
8. The Second Coming – The personal, visible return of Jesus Christ; the resurrection of the dead; final judgment; eternal life for the righteous and eternal punishment for the wicked (1 Thessalonians 4:16-17; Revelation 20-21).
9. The Great Commission – Every believer is called to preach the gospel, make disciples, and demonstrate the Kingdom (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-18).

No other doctrine shall be taught as binding on CIMI members beyond this statement.

ARTICLE 4: MEMBERSHIP

4.1 Eligibility

Any person who professes faith in Jesus Christ, has been water and Holy Spirit baptised (or agrees to be baptised), and subscribes to the Doctrinal Statement may apply for membership.

4.2 Types of Membership

1. Active Member – Regular attendee of a CIMI local assembly, living in accordance with biblical standards, contributing to the ministry's vision.

2. Associate Member – Those who identify with CIMI’s vision but worship elsewhere or are in remote locations; non-voting.
3. Ministry Partner – Individuals or organisations that support CIM financially or prayerfully without formal membership.

4.3 Rights & Responsibilities

- Active members may vote in local church meetings (where required by local law) and be eligible for leadership positions.
- All members shall live by CIMI’s values, participate in discipleship, and contribute financially as they are able.

4.4 Discipline

Members who depart from the Doctrinal Statement or live in unrepentant sin shall be counselled, and if necessary, subject to church discipline (Matthew 18:15-17). Termination of membership may be decided by the Local Church Board or Apostolic Oversight Council.

ARTICLE 5: GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

5.1 Apostolic and Prophetic Oversight Council (APOC)

Composition: 5 to 7 spiritually mature leaders (apostles, prophets, or seasoned ministers), appointed by the founding leader(s) and confirmed by existing council members.

- Term: 5 years, renewable.

Functions:

- Ensure doctrinal purity and vision alignment.
- Approve major mission fields, church plants, and senior appointments.
- Resolve disputes between local churches or leaders.
- Oversee the Executive Leadership Team.

5.2 Executive Leadership Team (ELT)

Composition: National/Regional Director, Operations & Finance Manager, Missions & Evangelism Coordinator, Discipleship & Training Director, Media & Communications Director.

Appointment: By the APOC, after consultation with local church boards.

EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP TEAM – ROLES AND FUNCTIONS

General Functions of the ELT

The Executive Leadership Team (ELT) serves as the operational arm of CIMI, implementing the vision and decisions of the Apostolic and Prophetic Oversight Council (APOC). The ELT shall:

- Oversee day-to-day ministry activities, finances, and personnel.
- Develop and execute annual strategic plans in alignment with CIM's vision and mission.
- Report regularly to the APOC (monthly written reports; quarterly in-person meetings).
- Coordinate between local churches, mission fields, and support departments.
- Ensure legal and financial compliance in all regions of operation.

All ELT members must:

- Affirm the Doctrinal Statement (Article 3).
- Demonstrate character and competence consistent with 1 Timothy 3:1-13 and Titus 1:5-9.
- Be appointed by the APOC for a term of three years (renewable).

Roles and Specific Functions

1. National / Regional Director

Biblical Precedent: Like Timothy or Titus, overseeing multiple churches and workers (1 Timothy 1:3; Titus 1:5).

Responsibilities:

- Provide spiritual and strategic leadership to all CIM operations within the designated nation or region.
- Chair ELT meetings and cast vision for evangelism, church planting, and training.
- Represent CIM to external partners, government authorities, and other denominations.
- Mentor senior leaders and resolve conflicts that rise above local church level.
- Ensure that the core values and doctrinal standards are upheld across all ministries.

Accountability: Directly accountable to the APOC.

2. Operations & Finance Manager

Biblical Precedent: Like Joseph or the apostles' appointment of deacons to handle practical affairs (Genesis 41; Acts 6:1-4).

Responsibilities:

- Prepare and manage annual budgets, cash flow, and financial reports.
- Oversee all income (tithes, offerings, donations) and ensure proper receipting and banking.
- Process payroll, reimbursements, and ministry expenses in accordance with approved policies.
- Maintain asset registers (properties, vehicles, equipment) and oversee facility management.
- Ensure legal compliance (tax, charity registration, employment law) with help of external counsel.
- Produce quarterly financial statements for the AOC and annual report for members.

Accountability: Reports to the National/Regional Director and jointly to the APOC on financial matters.

3. Missions & Evangelism Coordinator

Biblical Precedent: Like Paul, who coordinated missionary teams and evangelistic campaigns (Acts 13–14).

Responsibilities:

- Develop and oversee national and international mission strategies.
- Recruit, train, and deploy evangelism teams (digital, street, campus, etc.).
- Manage the Church Planting department, including assessment and sending of planters.
- Build partnerships with indigenous missionaries and local churches in unreached areas.
- Track evangelism metrics (decisions, baptisms, new groups started) and produce monthly impact reports.
- Organise national crusades, outreach events, and mission trips.

Accountability: Reports to the National/Regional Director.

4. Discipleship & Training Director

Biblical Precedent: Like Paul training Timothy and entrusting faithful men (2 Timothy 2:2).

Responsibilities:

- Design and implement the training pipeline: Foundation, Witness, Leadership, and Sending tracks.
- Oversee the development of curriculum (printed, digital, audio) for all age groups.

- Recruit and equip trainers (local and visiting) to run schools and seminars.
- Manage youth and children's ministries, including camps and teacher training.
- Evaluate the effectiveness of training through assessments, graduation rates, and follow-up.
- Ensure that every active member progresses through at least the Witness Track.

Accountability: Reports to the National/Regional Director.

5. Media & Communications Director

Biblical Precedent: Like the sons of Issachar, who understood the times (1 Chronicles 12:32), and the use of writing to spread the gospel (Colossians 4:16).

Responsibilities:

- Oversee all digital platforms: website, social media, podcast, YouTube, mobile app.
- Produce and schedule gospel content (videos, graphics, articles, live streams).
- Manage public relations, press releases, and brand consistency.
- Train and supervise Digital Missionaries and content creators.
- Monitor analytics and adjust strategies to maximise reach and engagement.
- Ensure that all media honours God and aligns with CIM doctrine and values.

Accountability: Reports to the National/Regional Director.

Meetings and Decision-Making

- The ELT shall meet at least monthly (in person or via secure video conference).
- A simple majority of ELT members constitutes a quorum.
- Decisions are made by consensus where possible, otherwise by majority vote.
- The National/Regional Director may cast a tie-breaking vote.
- Minutes of each meeting shall be kept and submitted to the APOC within seven days.

Removal and Replacement

Any ELT member may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the APOC for:

- Departure from the Doctrinal Statement.
- Gross moral failure or financial impropriety.
- Persistent neglect of duties without reasonable cause.
- Incapacity (physical or mental) that prevents effective service.

A replacement shall be appointed by the APOC after consultation with the remaining ELT members.

5.3 Local Church Board

- For each local congregation, a board of at least 3 members (Pastor + 2 elders/deacons) shall manage local affairs, finances, and discipline in accordance with this Constitution.
- The board is accountable to the ELT and APOC.

5.4 Pastor / Lead Minister

- The pastor of a local church shall be ordained or licenced by CIMI after completing the training pipeline and approval by the APOC.
- Responsibilities: preaching, pastoral care, administration of sacraments, and leading evangelism.

Below is a detailed framework for a CIM Local Church Leadership Executive Team, designed to function under the national/regional ELT and the Apostolic Oversight Council. This can be added as a new article (e.g., Article 12) to the Constitution or used as an operational manual for local congregations.

5.5 LOCAL CHURCH LEADERSHIP EXECUTIVE TEAM (LC-ELT)

Purpose

Every local CIMI church shall establish a Local Church Executive Leadership Team (LC-ELT) to oversee the spiritual and administrative life of the congregation. The LC-ELT ensures that the local church fulfills the vision, mission, and values of CIMI while remaining accountable to the national/regional ELT and the Apostolic Oversight Council.

Composition

The LC-ELT shall consist of five (5) core roles, each filled by mature believers who are active members of the local church. Additional roles may be added as needed (e.g., Worship Coordinator, Facilities Manager), but the following are mandatory:

1. Lead Pastor (Chair of LC-ELT)

2. Associate / Assistant Pastor (or Discipleship Pastor)
3. Administration & Finance Deacon
4. Evangelism & Outreach Coordinator
5. Prayer & Worship Leader

All members must:

- Affirm the CIM Doctrinal Statement.
- Demonstrate character according to 1 Timothy 3:1-13; Titus 1:5-9.
- Complete at least the CIM Leadership Track (or equivalent training).
- Be appointed by the national/regional ELT in consultation with the Lead Pastor.

Term of service: 3 years, renewable. No more than two consecutive terms unless approved by the national ELT.

Roles and Specific Functions

1. Lead Pastor

Scriptural precedent: “Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers” (Acts 20:28). “Shepherd the flock of God that is among you” (1 Peter 5:2).

Responsibilities:

- Preach and teach the Word of God faithfully, giving priority to the gospel and Kingdom living.
- Provide spiritual oversight, pastoral care, and counseling to members.
- Chair LC-ELT meetings and cast local vision aligned with CIM’s global vision.
- Administer water baptism and the Lord’s Supper.
- Lead the church in prayer, fasting, and spiritual warfare.
- Ensure that all ministry activities are doctrinally sound and legally compliant.
- Mentor emerging leaders and delegate responsibilities appropriately.
- Report monthly to the national/regional Director or ELT.

Accountability: Directly accountable to the national/regional Director and the AOC.

2. Associate / Assistant Pastor (or Discipleship Pastor)

Scriptural precedent: “The things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also” (2 Timothy 2:2). “And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also” (ESV).

Responsibilities:

- Assist the Lead Pastor in preaching, teaching, and pastoral care.
- Oversee all discipleship and training classes (Foundation, Witness, Leadership Tracks).
- Recruit, train, and supervise small group leaders (house fellowships, cell groups).
- Coordinate children’s and youth ministries, ensuring biblical content and safety.
- Step in for the Lead Pastor in his/her absence.
- Maintain a system for tracking spiritual growth and ministry participation.

Accountability: Reports to the Lead Pastor and collaborates with the national Discipleship & Training Director.

3. Administration & Finance Deacon

Scriptural precedent: “Look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business” (Acts 6:3). “Moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful” (1 Corinthians 4:2).

Responsibilities:

- Receive, record, and bank all tithes, offerings, and donations.
- Prepare a monthly financial report for the LC-ELT and an annual report for members.
- Manage local church expenses, reimbursements, and petty cash according to CIM financial policies.
- Oversee maintenance of church property, equipment, and supplies.
- Ensure that all local legal obligations (tax, permits, etc.) are met.
- Serve as the secretary of the LC-ELT, keeping minutes and official records.

Accountability: Reports to the Lead Pastor and jointly to the national Operations & Finance Manager. Must not serve as Lead Pastor to maintain financial oversight.

4. Evangelism & Outreach Coordinator

Scriptural precedent: “How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?” (Romans 10:14). Philip the evangelist (Acts 8).

Responsibilities:

- Plan and execute local evangelism activities: street outreach, door-to-door, school programs, prison ministry, etc.
- Train and deploy members in personal witnessing, using the Witness Track skills.
- Coordinate follow-up for new converts (connecting them to small groups or discipleship).
- Manage the church’s presence on local social media or community events.
- Organise quarterly evangelistic crusades or open-air meetings.
- Work with the national Missions & Evangelism Coordinator to align strategies.

Accountability: Reports to the Lead Pastor and collaborates with the national Missions & Evangelism Coordinator.

5. Prayer & Worship Leader

Scriptural precedent: David’s organization of worship (1 Chronicles 25); Anna the prophetess who served God with fastings and prayers night and day (Luke 2:37); “Pray without ceasing” (1 Thessalonians 5:17).

Responsibilities:

- Oversee all worship services: select songs, rehearse musicians/vocalists, ensure theological integrity of lyrics.
- Lead the church in weekly prayer meetings (e.g., Sunday pre-service prayer, Wednesday intercession).
- Organize special prayer initiatives (prayer walks, all-night prayers, prayer vigils for missions).
- Train and manage the worship team and intercessory prayer team.
- Ensure the worship environment is conducive to the Holy Spirit’s presence and the manifestation of spiritual gifts (in order, 1 Corinthians 14:40).
- Work with the Lead Pastor to coordinate prayer for the sick and deliverance ministry.

Accountability: Reports to the Lead Pastor.

Meetings and Decision-Making

- The LC-ELT shall meet twice per month (or weekly as needed) for 1.5-2 hours.
- Quorum: At least three members, including either the Lead Pastor or Associate Pastor.
- Decision-making: By consensus where possible; otherwise by majority vote. The Lead Pastor has tie-breaking authority.
- Minutes shall be kept by the Administration & Finance Deacon and submitted monthly to the national ELT.
- Once per quarter, the LC-ELT shall meet with the national/regional Director for review and alignment.

Accountability and Oversight

- The national/regional ELT has the right to attend any LC-ELT meeting and review all records.
- Any major decision (purchase of property, hiring staff, discipline of a member, significant change in doctrine or practice) must be approved in writing by the national/regional Director.
- If a local church becomes unable to function biblically or financially, the national ELT may appoint an interim administrator until the LC-ELT is restored.

Removal and Replacement

A member of the LC-ELT may be removed by:

- Two-thirds vote of the LC-ELT (excluding the member in question), with confirmation by the national/regional Director.
- Direct order of the national ELT or AOC for serious cause (doctrinal deviation, immorality, financial mismanagement, neglect).

Vacancies shall be filled by the Lead Pastor in consultation with the national ELT, following the appointment process.

ARTICLE 6: MEETINGS

6.1 Annual General Meeting (AGM)

- All active members of a local church may attend; one representative per household has voting rights (where applicable).
- Agenda: Receive reports, approve budget, elect local board members (if not appointed by higher authority).
- Notice: At least 14 days in advance.

6.2 APOC Meetings

- At least quarterly, either physically or electronically.
- Quorum: 50% of members.

6.3 ELT Meetings

- Monthly, with minutes kept and submitted to the APOC.

ARTICLE 7: FINANCES

7.1 Income

- Tithes, offerings, donations, grants, and proceeds from ministry activities.
- All income shall be used solely for the religious, charitable, and mission purposes of CIMI.

7.2 Financial Accountability

- A qualified treasurer (part of ELT) shall maintain proper books.
- Annual independent or internal audit (depending on legal requirements).
- No part of the income shall be distributed to members, officers, or directors except as reasonable compensation for services rendered or reimbursement of expenses.

7.3 Fiscal Year

- January 1 to December 31 (or as determined by the ELT).

ARTICLE 8: AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Apostolic and Prophetic Oversight Council, provided that:

- The proposed amendment is submitted in writing to all APOC members at least 30 days before the vote.
- No amendment shall contradict the Doctrinal Statement or the non-profit, religious character of the Ministry.

ARTICLE 9: DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of CIMI (by a unanimous vote of the APOC or by legal necessity), all remaining assets shall be distributed to another Christian, non-profit organization with similar purposes, or to a general missionary fund, as determined by the AOC. No assets shall inure to the benefit of any private individual.

ARTICLE 10: ADOPTION

This Constitution was adopted on the date of the last signature below and shall supersede all previous governing documents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned founding leaders and members of the Apostolic Oversight Council set their hands.
